

1. In applying for credit with Biobar Pty Ltd (Biobar), I/we (the Customer) acknowledge that any credit (the credit facility) granted following this application will be subject to the terms and conditions stated in this application or as subsequently varied by Biobar at its discretion and notified to the Customer.
2. Payments terms are "30 Days EOM" payment being due within 30 days from the end of month unless alternative terms (14b.) are agreed upon by Biobar in writing. Biobar reserves the right to charge interest and/or administrative fees for overdue payment.
3. Any credit limit approved by Biobar and advised to the Customer must not be exceeded. Where limit is exceeded, any invoices that precede the over limit amount become payable immediately. Biobar periodically reviews its credit limits. The Customer agrees that Biobar may review and revise the Customer's credit limit at any time. Biobar may increase or reduce the Customer's credit limit at the Customer's request. Biobar may also reduce the Customer's credit limit without request, but Biobar will not reduce the Customer's credit limit below the outstanding balance on the account at the time of the reduction without prior communication with the Customer.
4. Biobar reserves the right to pursue collection of outstanding amounts. Related costs including but not limited to external collection agent fees, legal and court costs may be added to the outstanding amount owed under the credit facility.
5. Biobar may at any time set-off amounts if any owed by Biobar to the Customer from the amounts owed by the Customer to Biobar. Biobar will apply payments against the outstanding amounts in the order in which they were incurred.
6. The Customer indemnifies and holds harmless Biobar and its officers, employees and agents from and against all actions, claims, proceedings or demands which may be brought or made against it or them or any of them in respect of any loss, injury, or damage arising out of any breach of these terms and conditions by the Customer or any negligent act or omission by the Customer and from and against all damages, costs and expenses incurred in defending or settling any action, claim, proceeding or demand arising from such breach, act or omission.
7. The Customer accepts and acknowledges that Biobar may disclose information disclosed in the course of this credit application to a credit reporting agency.
8. The Customer agrees to Biobar obtaining personal information from any credit reporting agency or a credit provider for the purpose of assessing any application submitted by or on behalf of the Customer for commercial credit (including information as to creditworthiness) and agrees to that agency or provider providing that information to Biobar for that purpose.
9. The Customer agrees to Biobar obtaining from, and provision by, any such credit reporting agency or credit provider further credit reports which may assist Biobar in recovering any sums outstanding under the terms of the credit facility to which this application may lead.
10. Biobar is not liable for any costs incurred in the completing of this form. The Customer is responsible for any stamp duty or other government charges levied on or in connection with this Application or any associated credit facility or guarantee.
11. The Customer agrees that it is the responsibility of the Customer to advise Biobar of any change of address or contact information in writing within a timely manner and no later than 30 days from the date that the change is effective.
12. In the event of a dispute regarding an outstanding amount:
 - a) The Customer agrees that the dispute will be dealt with as follows:
 - i. The Customer has 7 days from receipt of invoice to dispute the invoice. The customer will give Biobar a written notice setting out the amount and full particulars of the dispute, including the reasons the Customer disputes the amount, and the contact details of a nominated representative with authority to settle the dispute on behalf of the Customer;
 - ii. The Customer's representative and Biobar will try to settle the dispute by direct negotiation between them;
 - iii. The parties will attempt to achieve a speedy resolution; and
 - iv. If the parties have been unable to settle the dispute within 28 days either party may commence legal proceedings.
 - b) The Customer will remain liable for the amount and full payment of all invoices are required by the due date (unless Biobar otherwise consents in writing); and
 - c) This clause does not apply to legal proceedings by either party seeking urgent interlocutory relief.
13. Biobar may request the Customer to provide general purpose financial reports and other financial information for the assessment of this credit application.
 - a) Direct Debit / Automatic Payment: Not limited to any type or brand of Direct Debit or Automatic Payment, Biobar has the right, at its discretion, to charge/recover dishonour fees and administrative costs arising on failed direct Debits or Automatic payments.

Director's Guarantee

14. a) If the Customer is a body corporate, the Customer's directors and/or officers who have signed the Credit Account Application Form guarantee repayment of the credit facility. If a director/officer who has provided such a guarantee vacates their office, the Customer must notify Biobar in writing within 14 days.
- b) Where the directors guarantee has not been signed, all successful applicants will be 14 days from invoice date for the first 6 months and will transfer to 30 days EOM from the start of the next calendar month after a successful review of account history.

Confidentiality of the Applicant's Information

15. Except as required by law, Biobar will only use or disclose the Customer's personal information as necessary for the assessment and administration of the credit facility – for example, to accounts receivables staff or to external auditors.

Termination, Suspension and Default

16. In the event that full payment is not received by the due date the credit facility may be suspended or cancelled without notice. Reinstatement of credit terms after any suspension will be at the sole discretion of Biobar.
17. The Customer acknowledges that Biobar may suspend or terminate the credit facility immediately (with or without written notice), if the Customer:
 - a) Obtains credit by fraud, dishonesty or omission; or
 - b) Allows the amount of a monthly statement to remain unpaid for more than 30 days from its due date; or
 - c) Breaches any of these terms and conditions; or
 - d) Being an individual, commits an act of bankruptcy; or
 - e) Being a body corporate, becomes externally administered; or if
 - f) Biobar believes that the continued use of the credit facility may cause loss or damage to the Customer or Biobar; or
 - g) In the opinion of Biobar any change in circumstances including without limitation, changes in the Customer's constitution, ownership, membership, control status or ability to provide security for payment of amounts which have or are likely to be changed to the credit facility, makes the continuance of the application undesirable or unsatisfactory; or
 - h) Where one or more persons guarantee the Customer's obligations under the credit facility – that person or those persons withdraws his, her or their guarantee.
18. Subject to any relevant legislative requirement, in the event the Customer breaches any of these terms and conditions, Biobar reserves the right to notify credit reporting agencies of that breach. The Customer acknowledges that any damages suffered by the Customer as a result of the listing is solely the Customer's responsibility and holds Biobar and its officers, employees and agents safe from claim in respect of any damages.
19. If the credit facility is suspended or cancelled then Biobar may require immediate payment of all outstanding accounts. Suspension or cancellation does not affect any of the Customer's obligations in respect of the credit facility.
20. The Customer must pay to Biobar all amounts reasonably incurred or expended by Biobar in exercising its rights as a result of a breach of these terms and conditions by the Customer or as a result of any circumstance referred to in clause 17.

Variations

21. Biobar may vary these terms and conditions with respect to future transactions between Biobar and the Customer:
 - a) by agreement between Biobar and the Customer; or
 - b) by Biobar giving to the Customer not less than 21 days' prior written notice specifying the variation and the date on which the variation becomes effective.
22. Notice of the variation under this clause need not be sent separately and may be sent with the Customer's statement of account or as part of any other correspondence.

Further notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement or elsewhere and to the full extent permitted by law the cumulative liability of us to you under or in connection with this Agreement including any liability for breach, negligence or under any indemnity or law will be limited to the amount paid by you to us under this Agreement for the hire of the Equipment.
- (c) These limitations of liability continue after this Agreement expires or is terminated.

Force Majeure

If our ability to perform our obligations under this Agreement is adversely affected by any cause beyond our reasonable control (Force Majeure Event), then we may if we choose end this Agreement or suspend it for a period of up to 3 months by giving you written notice. We will not be liable for any loss, damage or liability which you incur as a result, whether directly or indirectly.

Severability

If any part of this Agreement becomes void or unenforceable for any reason, then that part will be severed with the intent that all remaining parts will continue to be in full force and effect and be unaffected by the severance of any other parts.

General Provisions

- (a) You agree not to assign this Agreement without our prior written consent.
- (b) You or the person signing this Agreement on your behalf warrants that you are authorised to enter into this Agreement and the person signing the Delivery Note declares, acknowledges and agrees that he/she has authority to do so on your behalf and shall hereby personally guarantee payment to us of any money due to us pursuant to this Agreement.
- (c) No time or indulgence by us will be deemed to be a waiver of our rights.
- (d) Notices and other communications under this Agreement must be in writing sent by mail, email or fax to, or left at the addresses set out in the Delivery Note (or as subsequently advised in writing by the relevant party).
- (e) In this Agreement, the words "including" and "includes" are not words of limitation.
- (f) This Agreement is governed by the laws of the State of Victoria and the parties hereto submit to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of that State and all courts which may hear appeals therefrom. Each party waives any objection to the venue of any legal proceedings commenced in any court within the State of Victoria on the basis that the proceedings have been brought in an inconvenient form.
